

Urban Educational Leadership Graduate Certificate

COLLEGE OF URBAN EDUCATION

18 credits

Advance your career as an urban education leader — in one year's time.

Take a well-rounded, culturally responsive route toward your school administrator certification with this 18-credit urban educational leadership graduate certificate program.

During the program, you'll receive weekly mentoring and coaching, along with opportunities for service learning. Through our cultural intelligence assessments and learning modules, you'll gain insight into internal bias and systemic inequity. Leadership topics such as human capital management, instructional core transformation and strategic improvement will focus on the unique needs of urban school environments.

All coursework for this certificate is based on graduate-level instruction; therefore, all program participants must possess a bachelor's degree.

This urban educational leadership certificate will position you for job opportunities such as principal, vice principal, dean of students and other roles as an educational leader.

Experience the Davenport difference:
