

DAVENPORT UNIVERSITY

Student Code of Conduct 2026-2027 Academic Year

Introduction

The purpose of the Student Code of Conduct is to provide all University students with guidance and to promote standards of personal integrity that are in compliance with the mission of the institution. Students attending the University automatically accept the application of the University's Student Code of Conduct and its processes. Any questions regarding the interpretation or application of the Student Code of Conduct and its processes can be answered by the Center for Learning and Engagement.

The following is the official policy of the University regarding student rights and responsibilities. The Student Code of Conduct outlines the disciplinary procedures, the hearing process, the appeal process, the application of sanctions, and provides details regarding Title IX.

The disciplinary procedures used by the University are considered part of its educational process and support its philosophy to produce graduates who are ethically and professionally oriented. Hearings conducted as part of this process are not courts of law and are not subject to many of the rules of civil or criminal proceedings. Because some of the violations of these standards are also violations of law, students may be accountable to both governmental authorities and to the University for their actions. Disciplinary action at the University will proceed at the discretion of the Executive Director of Campus Life, Associate Director of Student Affairs, and/or appropriate hearing officers, notwithstanding any related civil or criminal proceedings. The University reserves the right to alter, change, or modify these policies and procedures at any time as deemed best for the safety, security, and benefit of the University community. Such changes will be published accordingly.

Definitions

1. "Business day" shall be defined as Monday through Friday excluding official University holidays or University closures.
2. "Campus designee" refers to a University appointee who is responsible for initiating the Student Conduct process at the local level.
3. "Complainant" refers to a member of the University community, a student organization, or the University who is bringing charges against a student or student organization. When the complainant is a student organization or the University, a single person may be appointed by that body to represent it.

4. "Hearing Officer" refers to the person or persons selected to administer the Student Conduct process, as outlined later in this document, to determine whether there has been a violation of the Student Code of Conduct and to determine appropriate sanctions.
5. "Hearing" refers to the scheduled meeting wherein the respondent is provided the opportunity to present all relevant information and evidence regarding the alleged misconduct.
6. "Member of the University community" includes any person who is a student, faculty member, University official, or other person employed by the University.
7. "Respondent" refers to a student or student organization charged with a violation of University policy, not the University itself.
8. "Student" shall be defined as any person admitted, enrolled, or registered for study at Davenport University. "Student" also includes persons not officially registered or enrolled for a particular term but who are eligible to enroll or have a continuing relationship with Davenport University.
9. "Student Code of Conduct" is defined as the written regulations of the University applicable to students and student organizations as found in, but not limited to: the student handbook, the University catalog, Housing Handbook, the University website, the College of Health Handbook, and any other official publications of the University.
10. "Student Organization" includes all athletic teams, club teams, and student-based organizations registered with the University through the local campus office.
11. "University" is defined as Davenport University and includes all campus locations.
12. "University official" and/or "designated director" includes any person employed by the University who performs assigned administrative or professional responsibilities.
13. "University property" and "University premises" include all land, buildings, facilities, and other property in the possession of the University or owned, used, or leased by the University, including adjacent streets and sidewalks. University property also, where applicable, includes all tangible personal property owned, used, or leased by the University, such as supplies, materials, equipment, technology, and furnishings.
14. "University technology resources" includes but is not limited to: University computers, networks, software, websites, and properties.

Student Rights

Each student is afforded the following rights:

1. Freedom from unlawful discrimination or harassment on the basis of race, sex, gender, age, religion, national origin, disability, or sexual orientation under federal or state laws.
2. The right to information pertaining to academic standing, graduation requirements, and course requirements.
3. The freedom to establish student organizations consistent with University requirements, to pursue common educational interests.
4. The right to privacy of student records to the extent provided for under applicable federal or state laws. Information will be released only as allowed by federal and state laws.
5. The right to initiate a complaint that may bring about an investigation and/or disciplinary action involving another member of the University community.
6. The right to a fair process is outlined herein.

Student Responsibilities

Each student accepts the following responsibilities:

1. Students are expected to respect and value the rights of others, support the academic environment, follow the standards of the community, and encourage the proper use of University facilities.
2. Students are also expected to observe federal, state, and local laws, as well as University rules, regulations, and policies, including the use of existing measures to resolve disputes.
3. Students are expected to make themselves aware of and comply with, the policies and procedures governing them as members of the University community.
4. Students are expected to conduct themselves as mature individuals at all times consistent with the institution's values, beliefs, and highest standards of ethics and civility. This encompasses all conduct while on campus, off campus, and during all University-related or University-sponsored endeavors including, but not limited to: internships, practicums, clinicals, sporting events or travel, or other University-related experiences.
5. Students are expected to maintain a current local and permanent address with the University. Addresses may be updated through the University website.
6. Students are expected to regularly check their Davenport email and respond to University notices appropriately as this is a main source of University communication.
7. Students are expected to comply with all University handbooks applicable to their student status, including but not limited to the Athletic Handbook, the Housing Handbook, the College of Health Handbook, and the Student Code of Conduct.

Misconduct

Any student, group of students, or student organization accused of having violated any of the following policies while on University premises, including virtual communications, or during University-related or sponsored endeavors including, but not limited to: internships, practicums, clinicals, sporting events or travel, or other University-related experiences whether on or off University premises, is subject to disciplinary action by the University. The University reserves the right to investigate and take action for any off-campus student behavior violating the Student Code of Conduct if such behavior is criminal and/or is deemed inconsistent with the values of the institution. Participation in off-campus events that involve students or student organizations at which this Student Code of Conduct may have been violated, or at which participation has negatively impacted the reputation of the University, may also be investigated and adjudicated. The student's or student organization's continued suitability for enrollment or continued registration may also be examined.

The following is not a complete listing of potential misconduct that may lead to discipline but serves as a guideline to students and student organizations.

Academic Dishonesty

The University may discipline a student for academic dishonesty, meaning any activity that violates the University standard of academic integrity. Davenport University defines academic integrity as: the expectation that each person's academic work is responsibly and honorably acquired, developed and presented. Davenport University Academics outlines the specifics of the following policy violations on our website, in our handbook, as well as below. Violations of academic integrity include, but are not limited to:

1. Cheating

A student may not use or attempt to use, give or attempt to give unauthorized assistance, materials, information, or study aids in any academic exercise, including but not limited to, the following:

1. A student must not use or give external assistance on any "in-class" or "take-home" examination unless the instructor has specifically authorized in writing external assistance. This prohibition includes but is not limited to, the use of tutors, books, notes, calculators, phones, analytical tools, and AI software.
2. A student must not use another person as a substitute in the taking of an examination or quiz.
3. A student must not steal, acquire, purchase, or obtain from the internet or any other source, academic papers, examinations, examination keys, or other course materials.
4. A student must not allow others to conduct research or to prepare work for them without explicit authorization from the instructor for whom the work is being submitted. Under this prohibition, a student must not make any unauthorized use of materials obtained from commercial term paper companies or materials prepared by other persons.
5. A student must not offer to conduct research or to prepare work for others without advance written authorization from the instructor for whom the work is being submitted.
6. A student must not collaborate with other persons on a particular project and submit a copy of a written report which is represented explicitly or implicitly as the student's individual work.
7. A student must not use or give any unauthorized assistance in a laboratory, clinical setting, at a computer terminal, or on fieldwork.
8. A student must not submit substantial portions of the same academic work for credit or honors more than once without written permission of the instructor to whom the work is being submitted.
9. A student must not log into another student's or staff member's electronic classroom (i.e., Blackboard, MyITLab, MyMathLab, etc.) to obtain, alter, or destroy materials housed therein.
10. A student must not steal, procure or purchase academic work of any kind, including examination keys or course materials from the internet, another student, or a third party whether by payment, bribe, or promised favors.
11. Submitting any assignment, examination, or graded work that has been generated by an Artificial Intelligence (AI) tool is strictly prohibited unless explicitly authorized by the course syllabus or in writing by the instructor.

2. Fabrication

A student must not falsify or invent any information or data in an academic setting or pertaining to their academic status, including, but not limited to: records or reports, resumes, transcripts, laboratory results, research findings, and citations of the sources of information.

3. Facilitating Academic Dishonesty

1. A student must not intentionally or knowingly help or attempt to help another student to commit an act of academic dishonesty, cheating, or plagiarism.

2. A student is responsible for taking reasonable precautions to ensure their work is not accessed by or transferred to another individual wherein it may then be used to commit an act of academic dishonesty. This includes but is not limited to emailing, texting, or sharing screen-shots of another individual's original work.
3. A student shall not upload or otherwise share papers or assignments to websites that list or collect old materials, even under the guise of study assistance.

4. Interference

1. A student must not steal, change, destroy, or impede another student's work. Impeding another student's work includes, but is not limited to: the theft, removal (deleting electronically), defacement, or mutilation of resources so as to deprive others of the information contained within those resources.
2. A student must not give or offer a bribe, promise favors, or make threats with the intention of affecting a grade or the evaluation of academic performance.
3. A student must not alter a grade or academic score in any way, whether theirs or others.

5. Plagiarism

American standards of plagiarism refer to the intentional or unintentional use of previously created works, ideas, images, or creative works without proper documentation which includes citations of the sources used and a list of references. It is a student's responsibility to ask the faculty member to clarify any questions on the correct use of documentation for the work submitted in the course.

Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to, the following:

1. Copying print or electronic text.
2. Having someone else write any portion of a paper (including AI).
3. Rephrasing/paraphrasing text to avoid detection.
4. Rephrasing/paraphrasing text without proper citation.
5. Copying diagrams, illustrations, charts, pictures, or other visual materials without proper citation.
6. Using information from audio, visual, or other media without proper citation.
7. Using information from personal communication (interviews, group discussions, telephone conversations, emails, blogs, etc.) without proper citation.
8. Using information from an employer Intranet without proper citation and without permission.
9. Presenting as original work, something created by generative AI without clearly referencing the use of AI.

6. Self-Plagiarism

Self-plagiarism is submitting previously created material or coursework from previous classes, including discussion boards, projects, or presentations, without discussion with and written authorization from the instructor to whom the work is being submitted. It is also impermissible to use an entire paper or project, completed for one class, in another.

7. Violation of Course Rules

1. A student must not violate course rules as contained in a course syllabus, College handbook, or University catalog. This also includes documents related to the content of the course or to the enhancement of the learning process, including course rules in classrooms, labs, clinicals, and offsite internships or practicums.
2. A student must maintain expected levels of civility and professionalism, as laid out in course syllabi, the College Handbook, the University catalog, and other documents as it pertains to any academic setting, whether on campus or off-site.

Alcohol

The use, possession, or sale of alcoholic beverages by students is prohibited by Davenport University on all University property including on-campus residential communities, all academic buildings, and all athletic facilities and outdoor spaces, regardless of age, except as expressly outlined below. The following misuses of alcohol are prohibited, and include but are not limited to:

1. In Panther Woods and Panther Ridge apartments, only students and guests who are 21 years of age or older may consume and/or store alcohol in the privacy of their apartment, with the door closed and with no minors present with the exception of the roommate(s) assigned to the occupied apartment. Students not assigned to the apartment and/or guests under the age of 21 are not to be present when alcohol is being consumed. Kegs, bongos, and mass quantities of alcohol are prohibited.
2. Open containers of alcohol are not permitted in any public areas in or outside of the residence halls or apartments, including elevators, hallways, breezeways, lobbies, balconies, entryways, parking lots, lounges, etc.
3. Possession or use of alcohol that creates a danger to self or others including, but not limited to, excessive intoxication is prohibited. The abuse of alcohol and high-risk drinking activities are prohibited. High-risk drinking activities include, but are not limited to, drinking large quantities of alcohol, consuming alcohol at an accelerated pace, participating in drinking games, use of beer bongos, and/or any activity that promotes irresponsible drinking.
4. The sale, gift, or transfer of alcohol to minors is prohibited.
5. Public intoxication, defined as being under the influence of alcohol or other drugs regardless of age, in circumstances where such behavior causes a disturbance or other concern to the University is prohibited.
6. The possession of alcoholic beverage containers is prohibited on campus, except in Panther Woods and Panther Ridge by students who are 21 years of age or older as described above. This includes collectible empty or full alcohol containers and dispensing paraphernalia.
7. Alcohol is prohibited at all University activities or student organization activities, except University functions or events at which the presence and use of alcoholic beverages has received Presidential approval.
8. The use of University or organizational monies to purchase alcoholic beverages is prohibited.
9. Driving while under the influence of alcohol is prohibited.

Dishonesty

Acts of dishonesty are prohibited, including but not limited to the following:

1. Furnishing intentionally false information to any University official, faculty member, or office; this includes, but is not limited to: false information on an admission application, or any other document submitted to the University or on the University's behalf.
2. Forgery, alteration, or misuse of any University document, record, or instrument of identification.
3. Tampering with the election of any University-recognized student leader or student organization.
4. Falsification of University records; each student is expected to complete any University record accurately and honestly.

5. Providing false or misleading statements to any person charged with investigating or deciding the responsibility of the accused, reviewing a finding of responsibility, or determining or reviewing the appropriateness of the sanction or sanctions to be recommended or imposed.
6. Representing or acting on behalf of the University or another individual when not authorized to do so.

Disorderly Conduct

Engaging in intentional expressions or conduct that substantially disrupts or interferes with the University's normal functions, and the rights of others, including in virtual formats, or causes substantial disorder. Disorderly conduct is prohibited, and includes but is not limited to the following:

1. Threaten or Endanger: taking an action that threatens or endangers the safety, health, or life of self or others, or behavior that creates the impression of such endangerment.
2. Obscene Conduct: behavior that the student knows or should know is reasonably likely to be considered obscene under the standards of the local community, including, but not limited to: public exposure of one's own sexual organs, voyeurism, or video or photographed voyeurism, meaning the recording, use, or disclosing or distributing a recording of others in a location or situation where there is a reasonable expectation of privacy (including, but not limited to, a residence hall room, locker room, or bathroom), without knowledge and consent of all individuals involved.
3. Abusive or Offensive Language: abusive or offensive language is inherently likely to provoke an immediate violent reaction, whether or not it actually does so or is grossly indecent or offensive to a reasonable member of the University community.
4. Aiding an Unlawful Act: aiding any unlawful act or the violation of any University policy.
5. Guest Behavior: the inappropriate behavior of a student's guests and/or visitors on University premises or at University sponsored functions.
6. Damage: damage to University property or the property of another.
7. Unsuitable Conduct: behavior that is considered disrespectful, inappropriate, unprofessional, or falling outside the Davenport University standard of civility and professionalism.

Failure to Comply

Failure to comply with University sanctions or reasonable directives of University officials is prohibited, including but not limited to:

1. Compliance with a Student Conduct process or any formal University investigation whether through Campus Life, the Department of Public Safety, specific academic program, or Human Resources.
2. Compliance with reasonable directives from a University Official within the context of routine University functions such as practicums, clinical, fieldwork, athletic events, classrooms, and labs.

Fire and Safety Equipment.

1. Possession and/or use of fireworks, incendiary devices, or other dangerous explosives or chemicals is prohibited.

2. Arson, meaning the ignition of a fire or attempt to ignite a fire is prohibited.
 1. Grills and contained fires are prohibited on University property, which includes residential communities. University-owned grills and/or the fire pit may only be used with the express written permission of the Department of Public Safety and Campus Life, and only in designated areas.
3. Due to Davenport University's proximity to an airport, the use of laser pointers and drones is strictly prohibited.
4. Improper use or disablement of safety equipment or firefighting equipment such as fire extinguishers, fire alarms, exit signs, smoke alarms, and defibrillators.
 1. Emergency Call Boxes: activating the call box as a prank or pushing a call button when there is no emergency is considered a breach of the Student Code of Conduct. An automatic fine of $100 will be assessed.
 2. Fire Alarms: activating a fire alarm without the presence of an immediate threat of flames/fire (false alarm), will result in an automatic fine of $150.

Hazing

Hazing is defined as any action or situation imposed on another that can be presumed as forced, or with the intent to create embarrassment, harassment, ridicule, and induce physical, mental, or emotional harm. Hazing in all forms is prohibited, and includes, but is not limited to the following:

1. The destruction or removal of any public or private property.
2. Any initiation which may inhibit a person's physical health, well-being, or personal safety.
3. Any forced activity or action imposed on a person as a condition for membership in a student organization, athletic team, or other organization.
4. Any brutality of a physical nature including, but not limited to: whipping, beating, forced calisthenics, exposure to the elements, forced consumption of food, alcohol, or drugs, sleep deprivation, or any forced activity that would cause distress, the willingness of an individual to participate in such an activity notwithstanding.

Harassment and/or Threat

Harassment and/or threat is defined as any aggressive or intimidating behavior, or statement therein, intended to cause fear, discomfort, or that display bigotry or hate speech, whether overt or perceived. Harassment and/or threat is prohibited in all forms, and includes, but is not limited to the following:

1. Having the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment.
2. Having the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's participation in or access to educational activities, learning opportunities, and/or educational programs.
3. Adversely affecting an individual's living space or access to extracurricular activities and programs, including athletics.
4. Harassment and/or threat carried out on the basis of sex, age, race, ability, familial status, height/weight, marital status, national origin, political affiliation, religion, gender, sexual orientation, and/or veteran status.

Illegal Drugs/Prescription Drugs

Under the Controlled Substances Act establishing federal U.S. drug policy, the following substances are impermissible at Davenport University. The list includes, but is not limited to: substances such as marijuana, cocaine, narcotics, certain stimulants and depressants, misuse of prescription medication (whether prescribed to the student in question or another), and hallucinogens. Illegal drugs are prohibited in all forms, and include but are not limited to:

1. The possession and/or use of controlled substances, illicit drugs, or any substance used as a drug, the inhalation or ingestion of such substances that may alter a person's mental state.
2. The production, distribution, sale, transfer, or gift of controlled substances, illicit drugs, or any substance used as a drug that will alter a person's mental state.
3. Use of or unauthorized possession of a prescription drug if the prescription was not issued to the student, the distribution or sale of a prescription drug to a person to whom the prescription was not originally issued, or use of a prescription drug which violates local, state, or federal law.
4. Possession, use, sale, or manufacturing of drug paraphernalia, including, but not limited to: bongs, scales, glass or plastic pipes, syringes, needles, and/or any handmade or common household items being misused for the purpose of drug paraphernalia.
5. Misuse of any household product for the intent of altering one's mental state.
6. The use or unauthorized possession of marijuana or cannabis products in all forms, as outlined in federal law.
7. Driving while under the influence of marijuana is prohibited.

Inappropriate Use of Technology/University Internet Services

Theft or other abuse of computers, related computing network, websites, equipment, data, or internet services, and/or the use of University technology resources to interfere with normal operation of the University computing system is prohibited, including, but not limited to:

1. Unauthorized entry into, use of, transfer, or deletion of a file or class assignment.
2. Unauthorized use of another individual's identification and/or password, or unauthorized provision of a student's identification and password to another.
3. Use of University technology resources to interfere with the work of another student, faculty member, University official, or other entity.
4. Use of University technology resources for personal gain or profit.
5. Use of University technology resources to send or obtain obscene or abusive messaging, or to send, share, or sell pornographic material.
6. Use of University technology resources to threaten, intimidate, or otherwise violate University anti-harassment or anti-violence policies.
7. Copyright Infringement, meaning the use of works protected by copyright law without proper permission. This includes reproduction, distribution, display of copyrighted work, and up to the derivation of a copyrighted work.

Obstruction or Disruption

Acts of obstruction or disruption are prohibited, including but not limited to:

1. Obstructing or disrupting teaching, research, a lab or classroom setting, disciplinary procedures, and/or other normal University activities or functions.

1. This includes the online format. Students are expected at all times to remember our standards of civility and professionalism at all times on online platforms, in the classroom, within the athletic context, and/or in University Residential Housing.
2. Leading or inciting others to disrupt scheduled and/or normal activities within any building or area.

Parking Policy

Students are responsible for all Davenport University parking policies as published on the University website. Violations of these policies may result in disciplinary action.

Proximal Complicity

Students who enter an area where a violation of policy is occurring, or a violation is initiated in an area that they are in, should leave immediately. In choosing to stay, the student assumes responsibility for all behavior and/or items in that vicinity, regardless of their participation, unless it can be clearly demonstrated that the student had no knowledge of the incident.

Public Demonstrations and Protests

Davenport University supports students' right to free speech. As such, all lawful, peaceful and organized demonstrations or protests that take place on Davenport University's property are permitted, while simultaneously required to adhere to the following:

1. Must be led by current, enrolled students. Outside organizations are not permitted to lead demonstrations or protests on private property.
2. Must follow all guidelines laid out in the Student Code of Conduct including but not limited to: maintaining a spirit of civility and respect, refraining from obstruction or disruption, abstaining from abusive or offensive language, and it must not incite or illicit violence.
3. No defacement or destruction of Davenport University property.
4. May not perpetuate intimidation, harassment, discrimination, or create an unsafe environment for those participating or not participating in the demonstration or protest.

Should any student or student group wish to reserve a space for a protest or demonstration, inquire at your applicable campus welcome desk or contact Student Life.

Retaliation

No student, group of students or registered student organization may intimidate, threaten, coerce, or take adverse action against any other student or Davenport University employee or affiliate to interfere with any right or privilege they hold as a student or employee or to repay injury or insult of any kind related to a person's good faith participation in an official University proceeding or process. Acts of retaliation are prohibited, including, but not limited to:

1. Retaliation against a reporting party or witness in a University process, whether through the Office of Student Affairs, Athletics, Title IX, Human Resources, or elsewhere.

2. Retaliation against a University employee and/or DU affiliate conducting their routine responsibilities in the context of an investigation, hearing, or appeals proceeding.

Persons who believe retaliation is occurring or has occurred toward them as a result of their good faith participation in a University process are invited to report that allegation to our Incident Report link available on the Davenport University website.

Sexual Misconduct

Sexual misconduct is defined as a broad term that encompasses any behavior of a sexual nature that is unwelcome. Sexual misconduct is prohibited, and includes, but is not limited to:

1. Sexual Assault: any sexual act or attempt to engage in any sexual act with another person without the consent of the other person, or in circumstances in which the person is unable, due to age, ability, or alcohol/substance or other impairment, to give consent.
2. Sexual Misconduct: any intentional intimate touching of another without the consent of the other person or in circumstances in which the person is unable, due to age, ability, or alcohol/substance or other impairment, to give consent.

Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment on the basis of sex is a violation of state and federal law. Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment, are strictly prohibited, and include but are not limited to:

1. Sexual Exploitation/Intimidation: taking advantage of the sexuality or attractiveness of a person for personal profit or gain, an abuse of power of position, trust, or differential power for one's own personal interest or purpose.
2. Sexual Harassment - Quid Pro Quo: harassing conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly as a term or condition of an individual's participation in or access to educational activities and programs.
3. Sexual Harassment - Hostile Environment: sexually harassing conduct that has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working, living, or educational environment.
4. Sexual Harassment - Unwanted Advances: harassing conduct made either physically, or sexually, in the form of sexual statements, whether verbal or written, or overt personal attention related to one's sex, which is unwanted.

Stalking

Stalking is defined at Davenport University as repeatedly pursuing or approaching a person in an aggressive or threatening manner, which is against the expressed wishes of that individual, whether student, staff, or faculty. As such, it is strictly prohibited.

Tobacco Use

All buildings on all Davenport University properties are designated as tobacco-free. Tobacco products include any product or device intended to simulate smoking: cigarettes, cigars, pipe tobacco, electronic cigarettes, vapes, and/or smokeless tobacco including snuff, chewing tobacco, smokeless pouches, or loose-leaf tobacco. Designated areas are clearly marked on each campus for the use of tobacco products, and all use is limited to these spaces.

Theft

The unauthorized possession or use of University property or the property of another is prohibited in all forms and includes, but is not limited to:

1. Larceny: the theft of personal property which belongs to another.
2. Burglary: unauthorized entry into a space or building in order to commit a crime, specifically theft.

Unauthorized Entry

The unauthorized entry, occupancy, or use of physical or virtual University premises or property is prohibited.

Unauthorized Electronic or Digital Recording

Making, using, disclosing, or distributing a recording of a person in a location or situation in which that person has a reasonable expectation of privacy and is unaware of the recording or does not consent to it is prohibited. Such conduct includes, but is not limited to, unauthorized recording of personal conversations, phone calls, images including screenshots, meetings, or activities.

Unauthorized Use of University Property, Including Online Property

Students are authorized to use University property only as consistent with their coursework, student housing, or related educational activities as provided for under this Student Code. The misuse of University property, including online property is prohibited, and includes but is not limited to:

1. Online materials, including syllabi, lectures, discussion threads, and other course and University-related materials found online, are the property of the University and should not be disclosed, directly or indirectly, to any person or entity outside of the University, and (in the case of online classes) to anyone otherwise not involved in teaching or who is enrolled in the particular class.
2. University physical property such as desks, chairs, tables, or any other University owned items.
3. Electronic or tech-related items such as computers, printers, scanners, or any other University-owned items.

Violations of Campus Policies and Other University Policies

1. Violations of University publications, including but not limited to: those found in the Housing Life Handbook, Student Athletic Handbook, publications in the School of Health and Sciences, the College of Health Professions Handbook, those related to Student Employment, Anti-Violence, Anti-Harassment, the Student Employee Handbook, the Student Academic Integrity publication, and all Title IX policies are prohibited and may result in disciplinary proceedings and sanctions under this policy.
2. Guests and visitors to the University will also be held to University policies as outlined in these documents.

Violation of Laws

Violation of federal, state, or local laws is prohibited. This also includes any conduct that is disorderly, lewd, or indecent; breach of peace; or aiding, abetting, or procuring another person to breach the peace.

Violation of University Sanctions and Processes

Students who violate the terms of sanctions that they are currently under through the University Student Conduct process may be held responsible and receive additional sanctioning on the part of the University.

Students who do not cooperate appropriately throughout a conduct process, by either withholding information, evading professional staff, or obstructing a conduct process, may be held responsible and receive additional charges and/or sanctions on the part of the University.

Weapons

Possession, use, control, or distribution of any weapons is prohibited on all University premises across all campuses in both indoor and outdoor spaces, as well as at any University-sponsored event, activity, educational experience, or athletic function. The following items are prohibited without limitation to the University's ability to prohibit additional items, as appropriate:

1. Firearms, rifles, shotguns, tasers, and handguns, with or without a concealed carry permit.
2. BB and pellet pistols, rifles that are spring, gas, or air powered, facsimile weapons, paint guns, and airsoft guns.
3. Sharp objects such as: hunting knives, throwing stars, swords, and bows and arrows.
4. Explosives, fireworks, dangerous chemicals, bombs, or household items that are manipulated with the intent to create a bomb.
5. Ornamental weaponry used for decorative purposes.
6. Self-made weapons or the use of any item with the intent of threatening or causing harm to another. Possession or use of any of the above items, even if legally possessed, that harms, threatens, causes fear, or raises the concern of members of the University is strictly prohibited.
7. Weapon paraphernalia including but not limited to: bullets, arrows, magazine clips, and other miscellaneous firearm accessories.

Student Illness Statement

As permitted by law, the University reserves the right to require students who contract a contagious disease to remain quarantined, or away from the University until they present a doctor's statement that they are no longer infectious to others, and/or they are following any official University guidance on the matter.

Title IX Statement

In accordance with federal law, Davenport University complies with all Title IX mandates. Please see the Davenport University Title IX website for details.

Student Code of Conduct Process

Incident Reporting Process

Anyone wishing to report student misconduct shall document all relevant information via an incident report, which shall be provided to a member of the campus administration.

When a written incident report is filed, it shall be forwarded to Student Conduct personnel, and other applicable University Officials. Following review of the incident report (which may include, without limitation, any and all investigation research deemed appropriate by the Campus Designee regarding the underlying incident), a determination will be made by the Campus Designee (in possible consultation with other University leadership) whether charges of misconduct should be filed in response to the incident. The University may take action against a student for violating the Student Code of Conduct which then begins the Student Conduct hearing process.

Interim Suspensions and No-Contact Orders

Under certain circumstances when a student violates the University Student Code of Conduct, the Executive Director of Campus Life, Associate Director of Student Affairs, Director of Housing, or Campus Designee may impose a University interim suspension or Residence Hall interim suspension prior to a student conduct hearing. In general, a University interim suspension prohibits the student to be on or in any University facility and requires a student to leave and not return to any University residential facility until the outcome of a student conduct hearing is determined.

Interim suspension may be imposed if any or all of the following are determined:

1. The student poses a threat of disruption or interference with the normal operations of the University or,
2. In order to ensure the safety and well-being of members of the University community;
3. To preserve University property;
4. To ensure the student's own physical or emotional safety or the well-being and physical or emotional safety and well-being of others.

The affected person will be notified of the interim suspension through electronic mail sent via Maxient or any other electronic messaging system utilized by the University, in addition to a verbal notification and/or printed written notice.

During a University interim suspension, a student shall be denied access to the residence halls and/or University campuses (including classes) and/or all other University activities, privileges, or team activities for which the student might be otherwise eligible, as specified by the University official administering the interim suspension. Under certain circumstances, a student who has been interim suspended from the University may be allowed to continue with online classes. This determination will be made by the University's Hearing Officer.

The designated Hearing Officer will contact the student within two (2) business days from the date of the alleged violation regarding next steps in the conduct process. A hearing will be scheduled promptly within five (5) business days from the date of the alleged violation (unless the student requests an extension to the Hearing Officer), taking into consideration all evidence, investigative documents, and the student's schedule. Once a decision of "responsible" or "not responsible" is determined, the student will receive notice of the outcome of the hearing via student email and will have the option of appeal as part of the overall Student Conduct process.

A student's tuition, fees, and residence hall room and board will neither be refunded nor remitted, in whole or in part, due to an interim suspension. At times, in the interest of public safety, it becomes necessary to restrict a student's privileges and prohibit contact with specified individuals by issuing a "ban" or "no contact" order that prohibits entry to a specific location(s) or contact with a specific individual(s). Unlike a court order, a University "ban" or "no contact" order is issued by University officials. This order may be issued when the University determines it necessary to protect safety or to preserve a peaceful environment in which all students can work, study, or live on campus. This action may be based upon a complaint or report of dangerous behavior filed with Public Safety or Campus Life. Violation of a "ban" or "no contact" order is considered misconduct and will result in disciplinary action that could include immediate suspension or expulsion from the University.

Initiation of Student Conduct Proceedings

If the University chooses to file misconduct charges against a student, a hearing shall be conducted to review the alleged misconduct. A notification will be sent to the respondent's student email through Maxient or any other electronic messaging system designated by the University inviting the respondent to attend their conduct hearing at a specific date and time or request the respondent to schedule with their hearing officer as directed. If a respondent is unable to attend their hearing date/time or misses their hearing, they are allowed one reschedule before the hearing officer renders a decision without a hearing.

A hearing conducted before a hearing officer is often called an individual hearing as the respondent meets with one hearing officer or Campus designee. A second University official may serve as an additional hearing officer as deemed appropriate.

Witnesses: If appropriate, the respondent may present witnesses or provide witness statements for review. A witness is any individual who was present at the time of the alleged incident. The respondent is required to provide witness names and/or statements at least 24 hours ahead of their scheduled hearing to the assigned hearing officer.

Support Person: If appropriate, the respondent may have no more than one support person present at their hearing, and the purpose of the support person is to have another individual observe and listen. A respondent's chosen support person should not be another individual directly involved in the alleged incident. A support person may be dismissed if they impede the hearing process. Respondents may be asked to have their support person sign a FERPA in advance of the hearing. All hearings are closed to the public.

Overview of Hearings

The purpose of a Student Conduct hearing is to provide the opportunity for the University official or complainant and the respondent to present all relevant information and evidence with regard to the alleged misconduct. It is the responsibility of the hearing officer to consider impartially all relevant information and evidence, determine the facts, apply University policy, and impose appropriate sanctions if the respondent is found responsible for the alleged violation.

University Student Conduct hearings are administrative hearings that allow flexibility and are not a court of law. The Student Conduct process is separate and independent from any civil or criminal action and may proceed even if a related matter is anticipated or pending in other forums. Rules of evidence and the criminal standard of proof do not apply. A hearing officer is expected to find a student or student organization responsible for violations of University policies only if the preponderance of evidence supports a finding of a violation.

Hearing Held with Student Conduct Hearing Officer

During a hearing conducted before a hearing officer, the hearing officer will review the report with the respondent that led to the alleged misconduct charges. The respondent will have an opportunity to admit or deny the charges and present any supplemental information in response to the charges.

After reviewing all information presented, the hearing officer will determine responsibility and, as appropriate, any sanctioning. A written decision will be generated within five business days of the meeting and will be delivered to the student's email through Maxient or any other electronic messaging system designated by the University. The decision shall be considered received on the date and time that it arrives in the recipient's student email inbox.

Appeal Process

Decisions of the hearing officer may be appealed to the appropriate director. Appeals must be filed by the student in writing within (3) three business days of receipt of the written decision. The complainant or the respondent may *appeal the decision based on one or more of the following:

1. New relevant material evidence or information has been provided that could not have been discovered at the time of the hearing.
2. Procedural error can be shown to have had a detrimental impact on the hearing outcome.
3. Errors in the interpretation of University policy or the sanction(s) imposed were not appropriate for the violation.

Appropriate University directors will decide whether or not there is a basis for an appeal and, if there is, may alter any determination and/or sanction levied by the hearing officer should the above criteria be proven applicable. This decision is final.

*In failing to comply with the student conduct process, students waive their right to an appeal.

Sanctions

Any combination of the following sanctions or other sanctions may be imposed through the hearing process. Multiple and/or repeated violations typically result in increased sanctions. The sanctions listed are not exclusive, but serve as guidelines:

Primary Sanctions:

1. Official Warning: a written reprimand that expresses disapproval of the student's actions and warns against any potential violations of University policy in the future.
2. Probation: a period of observation and review. Misconduct warranting probation will result in a minimum of one academic semester and a maximum of the duration of the student's academic career at the University. If found responsible for violating any University policies or failure to comply with other requirements stipulated during the probationary period, the student may be immediately suspended from the University, housing and/or its events.
3. Suspension: results in a mandatory and immediate dismissal from classes, and/or the residence halls, and/or athletics, and/or activities at the University. A suspension may last for the remainder of the session/semester in progress and/or a specified period of time thereafter. Any additional violations or failure to comply with other requirements stipulated during the period of suspension may result in expulsion. During a full suspension, the student is not permitted to visit the University premises or attend any University functions without prior written permission from Campus Life and may not utilize University resources until the time allotted has passed. Any student who is suspended due to misconduct will not be entitled to any refund of tuition or other fees and may incur additional charges and fees after financial aid is adjusted. Readmission conditions may be specified.
4. Expulsion: the most severe sanction for violation of University policy is expulsion, which results in immediate dismissal and permanent separation from the University. Any student who is expelled due to misconduct will not be entitled to any refund of tuition or other fees and may incur additional charges and fees after financial aid is adjusted.

Additional Sanctions:

1. University Property Restrictions: restriction from certain University facilities or property, either physical or virtual, for a defined period of time.
2. Residence Hall Suspension: separation of the student from the University housing unit for a defined period of time, after which the student is eligible to return. Conditions for readmission may be specified.
3. Residence Hall Expulsion: permanent separation of the student from University housing.
4. Fine: a monetary penalty for property damage, theft, or other violations that result in inconvenience or cost to others and/or the University.
 - a. Upon assessment of damages, for students utilizing University housing, responsible students may receive additional consequences through Housing and Residence Life. See applicable handbook.
5. Parental Notification: as permitted by law, the University reserves the right to disclose to parents or legal guardians information about a student's violation of University regulations and policies and federal, state and/or local laws governing the use of alcohol or a controlled substance. The University may notify parents/legal guardians of alcohol or controlled substance violation if the student is under the age of 21. Appropriate Directors will determine the circumstances under which parental notification takes place.

6. Restitution: compensation for loss, damage, or injury. This may take the form of appropriate service and/or monetary or material replacement.
7. Educational Sanctions: require a student to write a paper, plan and present a program, attend a class or seminar, or complete other educational requirements, such as community service.
8. Loss of Privileges: denial of specified privileges for a designated period of time.
9. Disqualification from receipt of institutional financial aid while the sanction is imposed or possibly thereafter.

Sanctions for Student Organizations

Any combination of the above sanctions or other sanctions may be imposed through the hearing process. Multiple and/or repeated violations typically result in increased sanctions. The sanctions listed are not inclusive but merely serve as guidelines.

Re-Admittance Process for Suspended Students

Individuals seeking re-admittance into Davenport University, and/or a specific program, and/or Davenport University Housing after a suspension are required to contact the Executive Director of Campus Life and/or Director of Housing before re-enrolling in courses or applying to Davenport University Housing.

An interview will be conducted by a designated director, and an appeals committee if applicable. The designated director will then provide a decision to the individual in writing within (5) five business days, subject to holidays, as to whether or not their request for reinstatement is approved.

Re-admittance approval will be subject to the following criteria: full compliance with the sanctions, conduct process and re-admittance process in addition to a review by the committee of a student's written statement of response to the full incident.
